

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF KANSAS

STANDING ORDER NO. 95-1

APPEARANCES BY FORMER LAW CLERKS

This standing order is adopted by the court for the purpose of setting forth the policy of the court with respect to appearances by attorneys who have served as law clerk to a judge or magistrate judge of the court. The term "judge" as used in this order refers to both district judges and magistrate judges.

An attorney who has served as a law clerk to a judge should not appear in any case which was pending before that judge during the tenure of the attorney as a law clerk.

A former law clerk should not appear in a case that is assigned to the judge by whom he or she was employed for a period of one year after leaving the employment of that judge. If the former law clerk appears in a case that is assigned to such a judge, the fact should be called to the judge's attention, and the judge should recuse.

This standing order shall be effective from the date of its adoption, and shall remain in effect until further order of the court.

Adopted at Kansas City, Kansas, October 13, 1995.
